

SCÉAL ÉILE

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE COOLEY-KEEGAN BRANCH OF COMHALTAS CEOLTÓIRÍ ÉIREANN

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear Friends and Members,

We had an enjoyable and successful Children's Céilí a few weeks ago, featuring a number of special guests who added some new life and variety to the afternoon's activities. Bruce Culbertson led a fine tin whistle workshop for the dozen or so kids in attendance (see photo on page 3), which not only covered some of the basics of playing, but included learning the beginning of a simple jig. He also generously provided a recording of several traditional tunes to each family in attendance, so everyone can remember how they go.... Bruce then switched over to the fiddle, and joined in providing the live music for the dancing portion of the afternoon, in which the young folks were joined by some of their parents in popular céilí dances. The singing portion of the day also included a special treat, as David Winters taught a song or two, then led the sing-along with all the children.

For the past few years, our branch has hosted four of these Children's Céilís each year. They probably represent the most direct way that Comhaltas can fulfill its purpose of supporting and passing along aspects of traditional Irish culture to future generations. There is considerable interest (at all levels within Comhaltas) in expanding this type of outreach to younger members of the community, both by increasing the level of participation and perhaps the frequency of such events. This will be a challenge, however, as these céilís are also entirely supported and run on a volunteer basis: Michael and Maureen Murphy have both devoted many hours to making these successful, and deserve great credit. To expand the Children's céilís in a meaningful way in the future would require a broadening of these efforts, involving more of us in making our friends with families aware of the opportunity, and in putting the céilís on.

It's been nearly two years now (hard to believe!), since I sent out a short little questionnaire to the membership about "what should Comhaltas be doing?" Since that time, our branch has expanded its activities in a number of new directions, largely because specific members – some newcomers, some longer term – have put their energy into making them happen, and the results have been impressive. As we start a new year, then, I have no doubt that we can indeed make the Comhaltas events for children more rewarding and more accessible, if as a group we choose to make it a priority, and if individual members contribute their talents and time to doing so.....

Best wishes for the holidays & hope to see you on December 14th!

Slan,
Michael R.

☞ CCÉ DANCING ☞

On the first Thursday of every month from 8 to 11 p.m., we meet for SET DANCING to live music provided by the Shannon Céilí Band at the Plough and Stars pub on Clement Street between 2nd and 3rd Ave., San Francisco.

On the other Thursdays, we gather for SET DANCING LESSONS that are free to members, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Sunset Recreation Center (Lawton St. at 28th Ave). Immediately following these classes, we head over to the Plough and Stars (at about 9:30 pm) for more set dancing to the inspiring sounds of Topsy House, who play especially for the sets we are calling! Dancers are encouraged to contribute about $5 to help support this great opportunity.

☞ MUSIC SEISIÚNS ☞

Our Slow Seisiúns are intended for beginners who are learning to play traditional Irish tunes. These are usually held twice each month at Ireland's 32 pub (3920 Geary Blvd, S.E., between 3rd and 4th Avenues). This month they will be on Monday, December 8th & 29th beginning at 7:30pm. Starting at 9:00 pm, more experienced musicians are encouraged to join in on the faster paced, more Traditional Seisiún which follows. All are welcome to come listen as well! If you have questions, contact Michael Riemer or Michael Duffy.

Michael Duffy is hosting a slow seisiún at the Plough and Stars once a month (nominally on the third Tuesday of the month, starting about 8:00pm). This month it will be on December 16th.

Bruce Culbertson leads the whistle workshop at the recent Children's Céilí.

☞ MORE DANCING ☞

News for those who fondly remember the Palo Alto Céilí, started by Valery Deem, and continued until last year by Lynn Ferry. Unfortunately the YWCA, where it was held every month, has had to close its doors because of budget cuts. But the same event has sprung up again, now led by Lucy Geever and in a new location. So we announce ...

THE SAN JOSE CÉILÍ

Irish Céilí Dance with music by "Cooking with Turf." December 20th (every 3rd Saturday of the month) from 7:30--10:30pm at the Trinity Cathedral, 81 N 2nd Street at St. John Street, San Jose. Adults are $10, students $5, and kids are free. Email Jonathan at: ceili@doves.demon.co.uk or, www.doves.demon.co.uk/ceili, or call Lucy 408-885-0811 for more information.

Josephine Moore is teaching set dancing classes at the United Irish Cultural Center (2700 45th Avenue - across from the SF Zoo) on Wednesdays. Classes will start at 8pm. In the past, they have started later, but Josephine has asked to start earlier, or classes may have to be discontinued! So, please try to arrive earlier!

Set Dancing in San Mateo - For those who do not know - Josephine Moore leads set dancing every Tuesday night at 8:30pm at O'Neill's Pub on B Street in San Mateo. It's a nice pub with several local restaurants providing meals delivered to the pub. Attendance has been very low the last few months, and if it does not pick up soon, this class may be canceled. We are very lucky to have as much set dancing as we do in the bay area, let's not take it for granted. Please support Josephine if you can. You can reach her at 650-372-9659 for further details.

Michael Murphy is teaching at Scruffy Murphy's - 187 S. Murphy Ave, in Sunnyvale on Wednesday, December 10th. Lessons start at 8:00 pm and dancing to live music begins at 9:00 pm. More information can be obtained by calling him at 415-564-7188. The January dates are the 14th and 28th - mark your calendars!

☞ SONG & STORYTELLING ☞
