THE NEWSLETTER OF THE COOLEY-KEEGAN BRANCH OF COMHALTAS CEOLTÓIRÍ ÉIREANN

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Dear friends and members,

Summer is quickly drawing to a close, as families return from late vacations, the United Irish Cultural Center will soon be re-opening its doors, and schools prepare for the return of their students (I'll be meeting our new students tomorrow here in Berkeley!) I trust you all have had either a restful or successful summer, depending on your goals and choices for the season.

If you were traveling or otherwise engaged (as I was), and missed some of your favorite Comhaltas activities these past few months (as I did), I am pleased to be able to point you toward some wonderful Irish music, singing and dancing opportunities that are now fast approaching, though still on the horizon. For example: it's been two years since our first introductory Music Workshops, and we are reviving this program with a more focused day of workshops featuring fiddle, accordion, singing in Irish, set dancing and more. We are also hosting a very special concert, featuring the wonderful button box music of John Whelan from the Boston area, and including some of our own area's best young step dancers! But wait, there's more ... we'll also be having an evening Ceili in San Mateo, close enough to the South Bay to lure our friends from down that way (and even our colleagues in the Clifford Hoban Branch, perhaps!) -- and to keep it all tidy and convenient, these special events are all part of a single gathering of the new West Region of Comhaltas, taking place on the 23rd and 24th of October.

Many of the details concerning these events are described in the enclosed flyer, but let me add a few words to the larger picture: while our branch has "branched out" into many new activities these past few years, there are many folks interested in Irish music and culture that still know little about us. An infusion of enthusiasm and new ideas could do a lot to keep our activities vibrant and growing, so I would strongly encourage you to mention this "mini-convention" to friends you think might be interested in attending. Because of the scope and magnitude, we will be charging admission to some of the weekend's events, and are asking participants to register ahead of time to be sure we can accommodate everyone. Please pass along this registration form to interested parties if for some reason you won't be able to attend personally... but of course send in your own registration for the weekend as soon as you can! Late October may sound far off, but it's less than eight weeks away.

Slán,
Michael R.
